Dear Editor,

I am a Royal Marine Cadet, and my rank is Lance Corporal. My favourite soccer team is West Ham United, and so I'd be so grateful if you could print a picture of goalkeeper Mervyn Day.

BRENDAN BULBECK, Portsmouth.

Aye-aye, me hearty! Here's Mervyn to make your day . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I think WHOOPEE!/SHIVER 'n' SHAKE is the greatest invention since the telephone. I've got every issue, and I'll keep saving them for ever.

KEVIN QUINN, Co. Tyrone.

You won't "ring" the changes and try other comics, eh? Good for you . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

Recently, my sister decided to bake a cake, but it did not turn out the way she expected it to. When she took it out of the oven it was flat and hard, so hard, in fact, that she could hardly cut it. Needless to say it was supposed to be a ROCK CAKE.

DAVID ENGLAND, Eccleshill.

Er, beware if she ever decides to bake a BATH bun. It might include the tap . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

Every Saturday I clean cars on our estate. I started last month and I've already got quite a few customers. I only charge a small price so people give me more . . . but I do a good job.

JEAN HATT, Selly Oak.

What a shining example! You're on the right road to a fortune . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I collect car registration numbers. I started just two weeks ago and I've already got 2,367. Beat that!

ADAM HARRIS, St. Austell.

We'll see! Are Adam's days as Car Collecting Champ NUMBERED? . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

My hobby is collecting marbles. I have got 500 so far, and I am writing to see if anyone can beat this record. My other hobby is entering competitions.

CARL BUTTER, Huntingdon.

500 marbles! Gosh, your trousers must be weighed down to your ankles . . . Editor.

OSSIE

HI, gang! Do you remember the Pick-a-Strip series we ran in WHOOPEE!/ SHIVER 'n' SHAKE recently? Well, I've got the job of totalling up all the scores for the competing stories. You can count on me, mates — I won't make any mistakes (I hope!). To . . . er . . . "sum" up, I should have the results ready for you soon.

Dear Ossie,

From what you say of Old Thingy (The Editor), this is MY impression of him.

E ... Enormously greedy
D ... Dangerous
I ... Ill mannered
T ... Terrible
O ... 'Orrible
R ... Rotten

ANDREW MILLER, Padstow

Mercy, boss, mercy! Andrew said it, not me! . . . Ossie.

Dear Ossie,

Last Christmas my Auntie and Uncle took us to Knowsley Safari Park. When we got there the lions were just having their dinner, so we saw them eating big pieces of meat. We were driving out of the lions area when the car suddenly stopped, and we had to wait inside until a man with a big gun came to look at the engine. He got us going again, and thankfully he didn't have to fire his gun.

CHRISTINE HUGHES, Clwyd.

Thank goodness for that. It would have made an awful mess of the engine! . . . Ossie.

Dear Ossie,

Recently I plucked up courage to travel on the Ghost Train at a fair. It was very scarey, and I must admit I ended up covering my eyes so I wouldn't see the frightening sights.
JULIE GREIG, Hornchurch.

I know what you mean. I do the very same thing every time I walk into old Thingy's office ... Ossie.
